St Mary's War Graves

There are nine War Graves at St Mary's church. Recently work has taken place to provide a wooden cross at each grave, generously donated by Tomlinson Parban. A new plan showing their location has been drawn up, and a Union Jack flag will be placed at each grave on Remembrance Sunday.

St. Mary's Church War Graves

eginald Charles Arnold
Ernest Walter Arnold

Harvey Jones

C Mottram

Robert Ardern

Frank Roxby

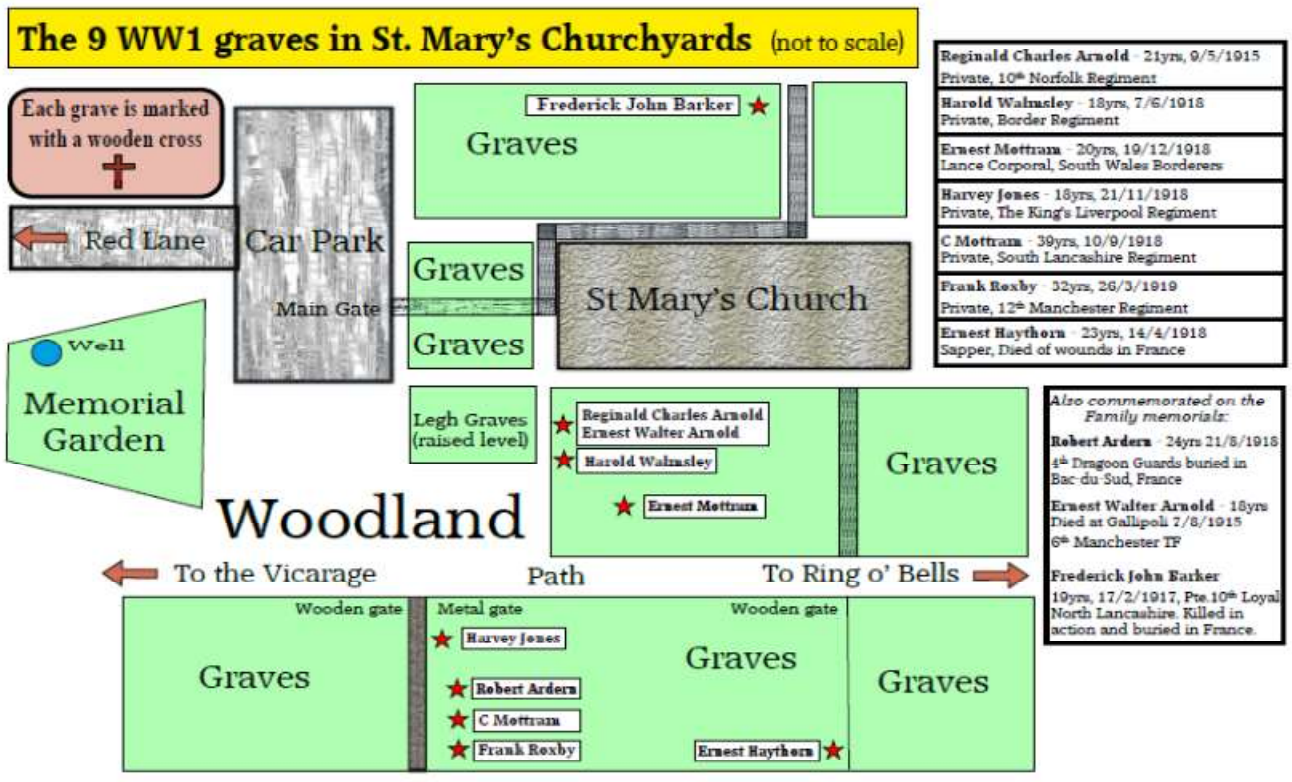
Ernest Haythorn

Ernest Mottram

Frederick John Barker

Harold Walmsley

The 9 WW1 graves in St. Mary's Churchyards (not to scale)



Reginald Charles Arnold - 21yrs, 9/5/1915
Private, 10th Norfolk Regiment

Harold Walmsley - 18yrs, 7/6/1918
Private, Border Regiment

Ernest Mottram - 20yrs, 19/12/1918
Lance Corporal, South Wales Borderers

Harvey Jones - 18yrs, 21/11/1918
Private, The King's Liverpool Regiment

C Mottram - 39yrs, 10/9/1918
Private, South Lancashire Regiment

Frank Roxby - 32yrs, 26/3/1919
Private, 12th Manchester Regiment

Ernest Haythorn - 23yrs, 14/4/1918
Sapper, Died of wounds in France

Also commemorated on the Family memorials:

Robert Ardern - 24yrs 21/8/1918
4th Dragoon Guards buried in Bac-du-Sud, France

Ernest Walter Arnold - 18yrs
Died at Gallipoli 7/8/1915
6th Manchester TF

Frederick John Barker
19yrs, 17/2/1917, Pte.10th Loyal North Lancashire. Killed in action and buried in France.